

DAIRY SHORTHORN ASSOCIATION OF AUSTRALIA

NEWSLETTER DECEMBER 2018

Dear Members

This is a short newsletter to let you know what is coming and has happened recently. On behalf of the President and the Dairy Shorthorn Council, hoping you and your families have a happy and safe Christmas and wishing you all a healthy and prosperous 2019.

World Shorthorn Conference

In 2019 the World Shorthorn conference “Meating the Future” will be held in Australia. The conference & tour will commence in Adelaide for international visitors on 23rd September with a highlight being the Shorthorn judging at the Royal Melbourne Show on Sunday 29th September 2019, then onto the conference. Enclosed is the itinerary showing where our international guests will touring.

Also enclosed is the Tag Along Itinerary for those who may wish to attend which includes the 2 day conference which will be held in Wagga Wagga on the 3rd & 4th October 2019. All bookings for the conference are being handled by Quadrant Australia and the application forms are included for the Tag along leg. Please do not return these to me if you wish to attend they must be sent directly to Quadrant Australia.

There will be a further post conference tour will follow in Tasmania, if have any further questions regarding the conference please call Malcolm Douglas on 0429 956 906.

Vale Mr Warrick Holmes

It is with great sadness that I advise you of the recent and sudden passing of Council member Mr Warrick Holmes after a short illness. Warrick & Betty (his wife) before relocating to New Zealand previously ran the stud “Grandstand” from their farm in Western Creek, Tasmania.

Year Letter

The Year Letter for 2019 is I.

Prosperous season for 2019

Here’s hoping that you, your family and stud have a better season for 2019 and Mother Nature is kinder than it may have been in 2018.

Facebook

Yes, that right the Dairy Shorthorn Association has a Facebook page, look for us by searching Dairy Shorthorn Association of Australia and like and follow our page. If you would like to submit photos or information you can email me directly and I can forward on or contact either Tristian Hornbuckle or Henry Dunn our administrators.
